ITALY IS NEGOTIATING FOR DEBT SETTLEMENT

Italy Will Be Granted Easy Terms

Most Lenient Terms Yet Granted To Be Given Italy For Debt Settlement

WAR DEBT IS TWO BILLION Informed Proposal May Be Presented To U. S. Today

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The American debt commission is prepared to grant Italy, in discharging her $2,139,000,000 obligation to the United States, the most lenient terms yet accorded to any European debtor nation, it was learned from an authoritative source tonight.

The disposition of the American commission to be lenient with Italy is based upon sound business principles and not upon any sentimental reasons, according to an official close to the commission.

A study of the exhaustive report of the Italian commission on the financial and economic condition of Italy is said to have already convinced the American commissioners that the Rome government cannot be expected to fund the debt on any terms approaching the British terms, providing for 3 and 3 1/2 per cent interest.

In view of Italy's condition it was said that business prudence dictated a settlement on the best terms obtainable, based on Italy's capacity to pay—the yardstick with which every settlement has been measured.

While the negotiations have not reached a point where a concrete offer has been made by Italy or any suggested by the United States in informal proposal was expected to be made tomorrow by the Italian mission.

The original offer to be made by Italy is expected to be low, but ultimately the figure will approach $30,000,000 annually, it was said by a high official.

STUDENTS ARE ARRESTED FOR DRUNK DRIVING

MARTINEZ, Nov. 4.—Two University of California students are in the county jail here and another is in the hospital as a result of an automobile wreck near Walnut Creek late tonight.

Raymond E. Peters, 2118 East Fifteenth street, Oakland, and Roland Perenco, 1922 Bonita avenue, Berkeley, are in jail charged with driving while intoxicated. A formal complaint will be lodged against the two men this morning, according to an announcement made at the sheriff's office here.

E. Peters, brother of Raymond Peters, is in the hospital suffering from injuries sustained in the crash. He was still unconscious late tonight, several hours after the accident, and the full extent of the injuries have not been ascertained.

The men were brought to Martinez by Constables Harry Stow and Reed of Walnut Creek, who arrested Perenco, and Deputy Sheriff Joseph and Joslin, who took Peters into custody. The details of the crash have not been learned by authorities. The wrecked car was found beside a concrete bridge just out of Walnut Creek and it is believed by officers that the youths ran off the bridge.

Storage at Dock Would Be Valuable

(INSTALLMENT NO. 19)
If the City of Richmond can secure five cents a ton out of the handling of goods that pass over the docks, why not?
Last year over 160,000 tons were handled, and five cents a ton would mean an increased revenue of over $8,000.

If the City of Richmond can secure goods for its wharf shed, that will remain in storage for long periods, why not?
The wharf shed has adequate space to store about 20,000 tons of goods and if but half this amount remained there on the average, it would mean an increased revenue of $1,500 per month.

At first the work will be confined to marking the present airways and the towns adjacent thereto. These two airways now on the Pacific Coast extend from San Diego to Seattle and from San Francisco to Reno.

Along these routes the company have numerous service stations and other buildings which will bear the signs on the roofs. The towns are now being selected and the painting of the signs is to start at once. As the airways on the coast develop the system of signs will be extended.

AIRWAYS TO BE MARKED BY STANDARD OIL

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—To assist in the development of aviation and to increase the safety of flying the Standard Oil company of California, according to an announcement by the U. S. Air Service, will establish a widespread series of guides and signs along the airways of the Pacific Coast States.

This will be the only marked airway on the Pacific Coast, and the only one of its kind in the United States.

The signs will take the form of the names of the towns painted on the roofs of company buildings, which officials of the Army will designate. The company will also offer assistance to the Navy, Air Mail and commercial flyers.

At first the work will be confined to marking the present airways and the towns adjacent thereto. These two airways now on the Pacific Coast extend from San Diego to Seattle and from San Francisco to Reno.

Convicts Used By Doctors to Test Pyorrhea

Dr. F. V. Simonton, who with a group of colleagues at the University of California, is conducting an exhaustive study of pyorrhea, reports that the 25 San Quentin convicts, who volunteered some months ago to cooperate in the work are faithfully living up to their parts in the tests.

When Dr. Simonton obtained permission to conduct his experiments at the prison six months ago, the prisoners volunteered to act as subjects to the tests. Working with a fund of $100,000, Dr. Simonton will carry on the study for five years.

According to the doctor pyorrhea is the most prevalent disease afflicting mankind today, there being at least 53 per cent of all people afflicted.

Boy Leader Of Robbers Is Arrested

Make Mistake in Attempting to Hold Up Officer Of The Law

CURFEW LAW NOW ENFORCED
Youths Helped Themselves To Everything Imaginable in Robberies

PITTSBURG, (Calif.), Nov. 4.—An attempt to hold up Captain Charles Schudero of the local police department near here today resulted in the arrest of 14-year-old Johnnie Slingo, who stands revealed as the head of a band of juvenile thieves who looted eleven stores here last night according to the police.

As the result of the wholesale crimes by the youngsters the curfew law is being enforced tonight in this city for the first time in many years. Authorities announced in an effort to break up gangs.

The youth was captured after a long chase during which the officer fired several shots over his head and that of his companion who young Slingo declared was Adolph Panfilli, 14. Panfilli, escaped and was last seen diving underneath an unattended house on the outskirts of the city.

According to the police report Schudero discovered the two lads with Slingo carrying a shotgun larger than himself which was part of the loot taken in one of the robberies. Schudero states that the youth leveled the gun at him and commanded "hands up." Dropping behind the shelter of the seat in his automobile Schudero drew his revolver and began firing over the heads of the youths. The youths fled, Slingo dropping the gun. He was later captured by Schudero.

The boy readily confessed of being the ringleader of the youthful band gang which last night entered eleven stores including markets, candy stores, billiard halls and department stores. Loot taken from these establishments included guns, keys, cartons of gum and candy, and similar articles. The police are attempting to round up the rest of the gang.

WOMAN IS FOUND DEAD IN TRUNK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—An autopsy in the case of Mrs. Jesse Gurr, 40, who was found dead last night in her home here was ordered today by Coroner T. B. Leland. Mrs. Gurr was found by her brother-in-law, Frederick De War, when he went to her home after not hearing from her for several days. Mrs. Gurr had emptied the contents of a trunk and crawled into the trunk, swallowing the contents of two poison containers and had evidently pulled the cover of the trunk down tight over her back.

De War found a note on the table of the room which read: "I cannot stand it any longer. Please do not start by mother by telling her the truth." The letter was addressed to a man named Williams in Seattle and a second message directed that a set of books be sent to a sister in Norwood, Ohio.

According to De War's statement, Mrs. Gurr had been despondent ever since her husband was accidentally electrocuted last August.

DRYER LAW TO BE SUGGESTED

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Plans for a still dryer legislation than that afforded by the Volstead Act, are being made by the Anti-Saloon League, according to Wayne Wheeler, its council.

Wheeler in a report to be submitted will ask congress to place all enforcement agents under the civil service, to enact a law which will call for jail sentences for all violators of the prohibition law and to provide for the deportation of all aliens violating the prohibition or narcotic act.

Wheeler declared he felt Congress would be in favor of enacting a law which would aid in making the Eighteenth Amendment more effective.

SYNOPSIS

By midnight Connemara Moore was to announce her engagement to one of two suitors or be disinherited by Aunt Celimena. Instead she is now speeding through Greenwich miles from home, at the side of young David Lacy of New York, whom she didn't know but whom she hailed as her passing aunt. And now a traffic cop has halted her and threatened to arrest them for speeding. And Connemara, garbed as a man, is pleading for mercy. At Aunt Celimena's home, miles back in Connecticut, excitement runs high.

In the reflected glow the face of the policeman altered its expression slowly. It ran from anger, through surprise to bewilderment. Still Lacy could not see her face, yet from the effect upon the policeman he understood that it was no ordinary face. An ordinary face couldn't possibly have had such an effect.

"It's not a mask I'm wearing," again she was interrupted, this time by a sneeze so violent and so realistic that Lacy was tempted to slap her regardless of her dignified robes; well in the middle of the back. "It's not a mask I'm wearing," and again a sneeze. "It's a thing—a sort of thing to keep out the dust, I suffer so from hay fever."

The cop yielded, but he was cynical. "Well, it sounds fishy to me, but I guess it's all right. But look out for Hogan at the Northchester line. He won't let you off so easy."

Lacy turned the motor, and when he started again, the face of his companion was once more hidden by the mask. She was sneezing, delicately this time, with just the proper effect. The car moved off,

CHAPTER IV

Zen
By Elsie Janis

In the two hours following that brief, altogether unsatisfactory talk with her niece, Miss Celimena was guilty of forgetting several times the rigid code of hospitality in which she had been trained and staring openly and anxiously at the painted face of the big grandfather clock in the hall.

If she could have done it without being seen, it is not at all certain she would not have gone so far as to push the hands forward, to lessen the sheer nervous torture of those dragging minutes until midnight.

This latest escapade of Connemara's was not only utter foolishness, but it made the girl and Miss Celimena herself seem undignified. It was unthinkable that a Moore of Moorelands should resort to such cheap buffoonery for the announcing of her engagement—which ought, properly, to be a serious, not to say ceremonious occasion. Thus, over and over, back and forth in the same track, like frightened and feebly indignant mice, ran the thoughts of Miss Celimena.

And even oftener than she studied the clock, this much-harassed lady studied the faces of the two other people most concerned in Connemara's outrageous behavior.

It was easy to see that Saltonstall Adams had little liking for the sudden blaze of limelight in which he found himself. Salt, like Miss Celimena, had been brought up to see dignity weigh much more heavily in the scales than romance. Or perhaps his definition of what constituted romance differed from spoiled young Connemara's. At any rate, as any and everyone could see, he looked very stiff and disapproving indeed as he danced, correctly and dutifully, with one after another of Connemara's guests, gallantly trying to live up to what was expected of him, but—as only the discerning noticed—with a faintly wistful bewilderment underlying the disapproval, as if his rather slow brain had not entirely caught up with the meaning of what was happening to him.

Bingham Carrington, on the contrary, was carrying the awkward situation off with a high hand. Inwardly he resented it, if possible, even more bitterly than his rival, for Bingham was an emotional youngster and very genuinely in love. But he held his handsome blond head well back, with his chin lifted a half inch or so more than usual, and had a drawn come-back for every inuendo of the over-curious.

We Protect Your Interests

WHEN you buy merchandise from a local merchant, you GET WHAT YOU PAY FOR! When you buy from peddlers, you're lucky to get even 50 per cent of your dollar's value.

Peddlers tell you they sell cheaper because of "factory to consumer." But--such a statement is PURE FICTION! The canvasser cannot and does not sell for less, quality for quality, than your own merchant. Peddler goods go through at least four hands -- the factory, the district manager, the branch manager and the salesman. And each must have his GOOD, BIG slice of profit. All of which comes out of the quality.

Goods sold in stores are handled by manufacturer, wholesaler and retailer. And with a REASONABLE PROFIT! And -- by ACTUAL COMPARISON hundreds of times -- your own merchants sell you quality goods for 25 per cent to 50 per cent less than you would pay for peddler trash.

Take no chances on being hoodwinked. Tell the peddlers that you buy KNOWN goods from KNOWN merchants -- right here in town. The peddler does NOTHING for Richmond. Your merchants contribute to the things that mean GREATER ADVANTAGES for Richmond. Play fair with them! And -- play fair with yourself by getting BIGGER VALUES and BETTER SERVICE!

'THE FRESHMAN' PRESENTS NEW COMEDY ROLE

Critics have pointed out that only in comedy has the motion picture achieved a distinct art. While the rest of the industry seems to be progressing slowly, the comedy has developed its own peculiarities—its own way of telling a story—its own way of putting over the ideas and accompanying them with laughs.

The trend today is away from the slapstick—slapstick with its easily imitated gags. Spectators laugh the first time you bend a club over a man's head, but when another comedian thereafter does the same, it becomes as silly as it is monotonous. The comedy with the situation is the newest high aim. It depends on none of the old slapstick hokum. It tells a story that is well sustained and the fun lies in humorous, life-like situations that are funny because the are so human and ridiculous.

Harold Lloyd introduced this type of comedy in "Grandma's Boy." That it was appreciated was proven by the acclaim it received. It was nothing short of a sensation! Robert Sherwood, critic of Life, listed it at the head of the twenty best photo-plays of that year. It has become the mark for all other comedies to aim at.

"The Freshman" aimed at the high plane of "Grandma's Boy," but is in no sense like that classic. The story is an affair in which the ambitions of Harold to become the most popular youth in college place him in the midst of the machinations of the conventional college pranks, and before he is awakened to the fact that he is being made the "goat" he experiences some unusually funny and also some very sympathetic situations, all of which are inextricably a part of the plot.

Supporting Harold Lloyd in "The Freshman," which is the feature attraction next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the California Theatre, are Jobyna Ralston, Hazel Keener, Brooks Benedict, Pat Harmon and others.

Norma Talmadge Starred In Film At the Richmond

"The Lady," in which Mary Nish scored such a big hit on the New York speaking stage, is Norma Talmadge's latest screen vehicle. "The Lady" which opened last night at the Richmond theatre.

London and New York gave "The Lady" a tremendous reception as an audacious drama and the screen version has been staged in Hollywood with extraordinary lavishness. An entire English theatre, London street scenes, the Monte Carlo casino, the cafe quarter of Marseilles, as well as the life of the port of Havre in France, all were reproduced for the picture.

"The Lady" is a First National production produced by Joseph M. Schenck. It was directed by Frank Borzage.

Other features on the same program include "Good Spirits," a Walter Hiers comedy; "Prizma" the screen magazine.

PIONEER DAYS IN ALASKA ARE SHOWN IN FILM

Presenting an accurate, virile and colorful romance of Alaska and its pioneer days, Frank Lloyd's "Winds of Chance" opened at the California theatre yesterday and sent the most critical film fans away shouting its praises.

Victor McLaglen in "Winds of Chance"

"Winds of Chance" is one of the few pictures with the power to sweep one virtually off his feet. Moving along at a startling pace, this latest First National epic combines the elements of scenic beauty and spirited action without slackening its pace, and there are so many celebrities in the cast that the reviewer feels that he has been entertained by a club composed of stars only.

More than any picture it has been our pleasure to see in several years, "Winds of Chance" deserves the distinction of being an all-star production. It is. And all of the stars in it share about as equally as it is possible for so real a drama to divide the honors. Anna Q. Nilsson, Viola Dana, Ben Lyon and Victor McLaglen are the principal quartet in the picture, but there is very little to choose between their parts and those of Hobart Bosworth, Dorothy Sebastian, Claude Gillingwater, Charles Crockett, Philo McCullough, Fred Kohler and John T. Murray, all of whom support to a degree the four principal characters, but also share individual moments of histrionic triumph which are vitally essential to the plot's success.

Dyea, Chilkoot, Summit, Sheep Camp, Linderman, Dawson City, all of the famous points of interest along the gold trail to the Klondike are graphically introduced and Alaska is for the first time truthfully pictured on the screen.

He Will Perform at The Armistice Week Shows

AERIAL ACT TO BE FEATURED AT LEGION SHOW

Among the many internationally celebrated artists to offer their wares during the six-day Fall Festival, to be held here during Armistice Week under the auspices of Post No. 10, American Legion, is Senor Manuel Macias, heralded by amusement critics and the show-going public, wherever he has presented his artistic performance, as one of the most daring and finished aerial performer ever programmed on vaudeville stage or under canvas.

Macias, the young Castilian high slack-wire artist, is known throughout Europe, from where he only recently arrived, following a six months engagement at the Circo Nacional at Madrid, Spain. Following his engagement in Richmond, which marks the closing of the present season of the Foley and Burk shows and the fulfillment of his contract with that organization, young Macias will again embark for foreign shores to fill engagements, contracts for which have been held in abeyance until the expiration of his contract with Foley and Burk.

Senora Perez is another unusually clever artist from the land of the Dons, who will present her unique offering during the progress of the Legionaires' celebration. The Davies family of acrobats and gymnasts is another exceptionally meritorious and outstanding number on the all-female program, as are also, Dobbs' marvelously educated equines and Holden's school of dogs and monkeys and three score other high class and entertaining features.

And on the beautifully decorated and brilliantly illuminated midway will be found a most complete collection of up-to-the-minute and thrilling riding devices, attractive concessions and interesting, educational and entertaining side show attractions.

The formal opening of the Fall Fun Festival will take place Monday evening, November 9, at the grounds at Twenty-third and Macdonald.

PROPOSE MUCH NEEDED LAW

MARTINEZ, —Nov. 4.—An ordinance will be introduced at the next meeting of the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors making it a misdemeanor for motorists to cross a railroad crossing while the wig-wag signals are in operation, according to a decision reached at a conference of officials of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and San Francisco-Sacramento Short Line railroads with the supervisors yesterday.

The supervisors and the railroad officials have as their purpose the safeguarding of motorists at railroad crossings in this county. The railroad has agreed to employ two traffic officers at the Bay Point crossing where a number of motorists have met death. The two officers will be on duty all the time.

KIWANIS HEARS AMUSING TALK

"An Album of Disagreeable People" was the topic of an amusing speech made by Ford E. Samuel, Oakland lecturer, who was a speaker at the meeting and luncheon of the Richmond Kiwanis club yesterday. He pointed out the things that make people disagreeable and declared that generally people of this character are never happy unless they are miserable. Captain Sanford told humorous incidents of his experiences while in the Canadian forces during the world war.

Dr. R. K. Root and Ralph Bergen were in charge of the program and Clara D. Horner was chairman of the day.

Royal Neighbors Attend Meeting At Haywards

Eight camps of Royal Neighbors of America, including Maple camp of Richmond, took part in the various ceremonies in connection with the bi-county meeting of the Royal Neighbors in Haywards, Tuesday. Under the supervision of Captain C. W. McCausland, Maple drill team performed a special drill.

Richmond was represented by twelve members of the drill team officers of the lodge. Mrs. Elsie Locke, treasurer of the bi-county committee; Mrs. Jennie Foster, district deputy of Contra Costa county; Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Sarah Johnson.

Mrs. Locke was chosen marshal for the coming year at the election of officers that was held at the close of the session. The meeting next year will be in Fruitvale as the guest of Vickery camp.

Sidre Funeral Rites Are Held

GRID SEASON IS CLOSED AT RICHMOND HI

Richmond Union High School's football squad is on pins and needles this week trying to figure out whether the season is over or if it is not. It is probably definitely settled now that it is.

For two days the boys had hopes of again meeting and this time defeating the huskies of Tamalpais Union High school. But somebody across the bay got his dates twisted. Within a few hours after issuing a challenge to Richmond for a game on November 14, Tamalpais telephoned that they already had a game with San Rafael Military academy set for that date. This last is a conference game so it couldn't be postponed.

Then Paul Villalobos, athletic manager for Richmond, started wires humming in an effort to get a return game with San Rafael Military, with which a tie was played earlier in the season, or with Petaluma who administered Richmond's only defeat, but previous engagements prevented these teams from taking on the locals. Therefore Coach Ivan Hill has called in the equipment and prepared to open the basketball season in a few days.

Richmond Union High school's football team has completed another successful season, having won five games, tied two and lost one. Only once was Richmond's goal line crossed for a touchdown. Eight teams that played against the locals this year altogether made only 9 points while Richmond ran up a total score of 94 points. Following are the results of the games played this year:

	V. R.
University High	0 24
Tech. High	0 6
Petaluma High	3 12
Premont High	0 7
Tamalpais High	0 0
Sacramento High	0 33
White Preps	0 16
S. R. M. A.	0 6

Difficulty in getting games has been a great handicap to Coach Ivan Hill and his athletic manager, Paul Villalobos. It was only possible to secure the eight games with the possibility of one more. An effort is being made to put through a game with Antioch but it is doubtful if negotiations can be completed.

Basketball is now of interest in the school. The men going out for the teams are already signing up. Hill announced yesterday that for a starter he will drill an unlimited and 130 pound aggregation. Later on he said, more weight teams might be started.

Success was the keynote of last year's cage team. Out of eleven games played, only one was lost, that to Lick Wilkesburg, champions of San Francisco. Outside of this powerful team everything that came Richmond's way went back defeated. There seems to be no reason why the five this year can't repeat. The graduation last June did not hit the basketball team to any extent and most of the regulars will be out for the unlimited quintet this season.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Miss Gertrude Ederle and Allison Riggins, two of the world's greatest women swimmers, announced through the Women's Swimming association today that they would shortly relinquish their amateur standing to engage in teaching and coaching at a pool in Miami. They will retire as amateurs next January 1, it was said.

WHO WILL REPLACE CAMP?
CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The question of who will fill Walter Camp's place in selecting the All-American football team this year has already arisen. There are dozens of well qualified critics who will supply lists but none of these have behind them the tradition and more or less recognized support Camp obtained when he chose his teams.

DEMPESEY IS DEFENDANT
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Andrena F. McPhee, a nurse, yesterday brought suit for $26,700 damages against Jack Dempsey and Jack Kerns, charging that the two defendants kept the floors of their apartment house so slippery with soap that one day she lost her footing and sustained injuries that kept her confined to her bed for five months.

TICKETS GOING OUT
Those fortunate mortals who did not have their applications for tickets to the Big Game returned can keep their eyes on the postman for the next few days for the pasteboards are now being shot out. Petitions Filed To Handle Estates

Charles M. Wolfe, through his attorney T. H. DeLap, yesterday filed a petition in the superior court at Martinez for letters of administration in the estate of G. W. Wolfe, consisting of $10,000 in real estate in Richmond. The heirs are three brothers and three sisters.

Petition was filed in the San Francisco superior court yesterday by Joe Ferraro of Stege, asking for the guardianship of the estate and person of his brother-in-law Paul Mianini, an inmate of a state hospital. The petitioner is represented by attorney Homer Patterson.

ANOTHER PRIZE MAY BE OFFERED IN TOURNAMENT

By THE LOST NOMAD.
Rumors that Ed Downer is to offer a second prize of some used golf balls in the coming Merchants Association Golf Tournament were partially substantiated yesterday when the following snapshot was taken of Uncle Ed on a golf course in the vicinity of this city.

Uncle Ed as you will notice on close observation is looking for a lost golf ball or rather a dozen. The business-like swing on the club he is carrying doesn't mean anything because he is merely using that as a disguise. The same holds true for the remainder of the costume.

The gentleman with the golf bag and the remainder of the clubs is not a real caddy. Oh! No. That is our friend Ed Huyek who has offered a first prize of twelve Richmond made golf balls for the tournament. Ed is going along to see that the other Ed doesn't find any brand new balls to make up that dozen for the second prize and in that way equal his first prize.

That the picture is authentic, is easily discovered by a close study of the course which will be recognized as one in the vicinity of Richmond. A closer scrutiny will reveal a number of Richmond merchants in the thicket to the right front trying to figure out what the handicaps should be to give all an equal chance. Rumors that the thicket concealed a practice game of African Golf are unreliable according to the police and coroners office. Only plain every day golf is to be allowed in the contest according to the committee.

Those who have signed up for the contest so far are:

Ed Downer, Jack Maxwell, Ernest Emerick, Fred Shaw, Stanley Macdonald, Francis J. McLaughlin, all of the Mechanics Bank, which beats Fred LaMoines drug trio; Cecil Moore, Chas. Weston and Fred LaMoine. The Carter twins, Harley and Bert, have also consented to play.

The newspapers will be represented by Grover Milnes and Ruel Crose. Only as Newsom says the rest of his staff is too old.

Ed Crane has talked Ward McRacken into helping out with the

"Men's Wear" and Ben Arnitz will caddy for both.

Then we have Harry Marcus, Clint Smith, Grant Miner, to make the game interesting for Caudle and Huyek, who will have the Richmond Golf balls on exhibition in McRackens window today.

All other entries must be in Saturday morning, so that proper handicaps may be allowed by "Prof." Brown. Telephone 21—no entrance fee nor questions asked about ages, etc. The dispute between Maxwell and McLaughlin will be settled later—Maxwell demands a 30 handicap and allows McLaughlin 18.

NEW HUPMOBILE 'SIX IS HERE

The new Hupmobile Six, put on display at the Curry salesrooms at Fourteenth and Macdonald, is causing a great deal of favorable comment for its new features coupled with the old reliable reputation. This machine is one of the sturdiest on the market and shows the results of long experiments by the builders. The car is equipped with the most modern type of four wheel brakes and has a duco finish to make it one of the most attractive automobiles among the new offerings.

WHICH DO YOU TRUST— OMENS OR FACTS?

If a bird flew in at your window today you'd probably ridicule any suggestion that it would bring disaster to your family. These old superstitions are passing. So is the anti-western superstition as regards motor oils.

An Exclusive Process Behind Zerolene Quality
Western naphthenic base crudes not only make as good an oil as any "eastern," but in the opinion of many lubrication engineers competent to judge—Zerolene refining processes make an oil that's much superior. Lubricating qualities have never been more carefully or successfully preserved than by the processes instituted at Standard Oil Company refineries for the refining of Zerolene.

—the Zerolene high-vacuum process, developed and patented by this company, which preserves the "oiliness" and superior lubricating qualities of the carefully selected crude;

—the Zerolene filtering process, in which all Zerolene is filtered through 40 tons of Florida Fuller's Earth—filtering that makes Zerolene purer and safer for the fine mechanisms of expensive motors than nine out of ten so-called eastern oils;

—the 15 positive checks at the refinery which make the control of Zerolene quality absolute!

Zerolene Better in Actual Practice

But Zerolene is not just a better oil in the laboratory—it is a better oil because it lubricates better. That's why Zerolene is successfully lubricating more cars in the Pacific Coast States than any other oil made.

Zerolene will increase the gasoline mileage of your car, reduce the carbon-removal operations and maintenance costs and lengthen the life of the engine.

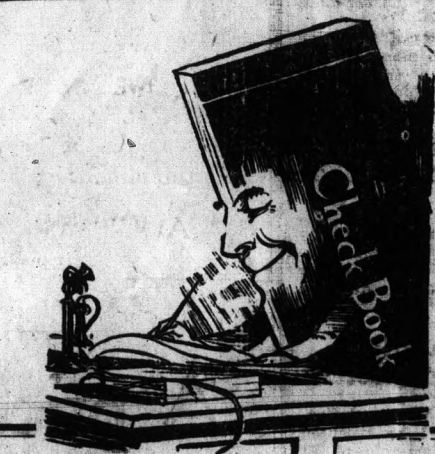

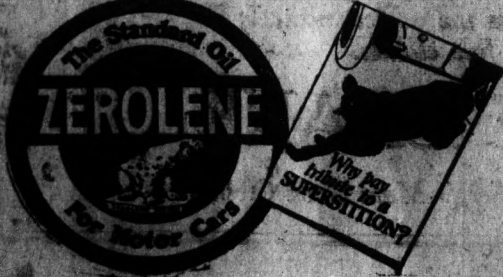

Why pay tribute to a superstition? Insist on Zerolene. Always ask for ZEROLENE by name.

Get the Facts!

A series of independent and impartial reports showing the experience of large users with Zerolene motor oil has been collected in our booklet, "Why Pay Tribute to a Superstition?" Ask any Standard Oil Company representative or Zerolene dealer for a copy.

OUR PROUD REPUTATION

That the Purity Creamery of Richmond is one of the best conducted and most sanitary plants in the state was the opinion of speakers who sponsored the new milk ordinance before the city council.

Dr. Blake and others spoke in high terms about the local creamery which is said to have passed all state inspections with high scores under the pure food act. It has always merited the very best reports, it was said.

Pure Milk and dairy dishes are the old standby in easily digested health giving foods. —And anyone can afford to include the best plentifully in their menu.

The best games of the season so far were crashed out last night by Barrel House No. 1 in the Standard Oil Bowling league games at the Barettes alleys on Seventh street. They swamped their opponents under three games and ran up a total of more than 500 pins over the Bolter Shop Team No. 2. Every man on the team bowled more than 550 and Whetstone passed the 600 mark.

In the other games the Power department took three out of four points from the Store House.

Tried to Fool Police, Held for Grand Larceny

Sheriff R. R. Veale received word yesterday from Chief of Police R. Lee Heath of Los Angeles, that Francis L. Metribiere, 30 who confessed to Constable J. J. Fox at Crockett several weeks ago that he was implicated in a bank hold-up and subsequent slaying of two men in the southern city, is being held on a charge of grand larceny. A few days after Metribiere confessed at Crockett he declared that he only made the statement because he desired a "free ride back to Los Angeles."

Veale was further informed that the charge against Metribiere is in connection with the alleged theft of an automobile and that the confession was for the purpose of obtaining a free ride and that the man in no way connected with the bank holdup.

Profits of Oil Swindle Are Gone

Nothing remains of the $342,000, which he collected for the sale of Golett stock Edwin Reeves the last of four defendants to take the stand in the Golett merger swindle trial before Superior Judge Fred V. Wood in Oakland testified yesterday. Of the above amount according to Reeves $246,000 was turned over to James Gough, alleged master mind of the swindle for stock and the remaining $78,000 he retained.

Of the amount he retained Reeves testified that he paid $11,000 as a down payment on a palatial home and spent another $10,000 on furniture to equip the home and the remainder he invested in the National Egg Crate company, which he was the president. The Egg Crate company failed, according to Reeves because of the unfavorable publicity which he received through the oil swindle.

Yesterday's testimony completed the presentation of the defense of the four defendants, Edwin Reeves, Mrs. Peggy Reeves, C. E. Peacock and Frank P. Davis, who are represented by Pierce and Carlson, attorneys from Richmond.

Unidentified Man Kills Self

Before a crowd at the railroad station at Vallejo Junction on Tuesday, a man, faultlessly clothed jumped into the bay and not a trace of his body has yet been found. The suicide occurred so quickly that no adequate description of the man could be obtained.

On the same evening, shortly after the Key System ferry "Fernwood" left the Oakland slip, an unidentified man pushed his way through a crowd to the rail of the vessel and leaped into the San Francisco bay. A twenty minute search was made by the ferry crew to find the body but was futile. He was described as about 45 years of age, well-dressed and small in stature.

Two Recovering From Auto Mishap

Mrs. Cora Simonson and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Porter of El Cerrito, who were in an automobile accident last week, and sustained minor injuries are reported to be recovering. Both women suffered from shock and minor injuries.

Interesting Winter Trips Outlined for Contra Costa Co.

During the winter season motorists will find many interesting and worth while trips through various parts of Contra Costa county, according to the touring bureau of the California State Automobile association. Nearly all of the main roads in this county are now hard surfaced.

There is excellent pavement north of Oakland via the San Pablo avenue route to Rodeo, Crockett and Martinez. The Franklin canyon route to Martinez is also in excellent condition with the exception of one short detour which causes no delay to motor travel.

The "Tunnel road out of Oakland to Walnut Creek, Concord and then to Martinez, Pittsburg or to Antioch is also in good condition." The roads to the top of Mt. Diablo from either Walnut Creek or Danville are also in good condition at the present time, although they are not paved.

Motorists who want to go to Byron Hot Springs will find that either the Tunnel road and Borden highway or the Dublin canyon road, offer a good route. There is also an excellent paved road from San Pablo via Lake Orinda to Bryant and the popular picnic grounds in the vicinity of Pinehurst and Moraga.

The hearing before the state board railroad commission on the petition of the Key System Transit company for an increase in street car and ferry rates was yesterday continued until February 3, in Oakland by Commissioner Clyde L. Seavey, presiding officer.

Richard Sachse, consulting engineer of the company, declared before the commission Tuesday, that the Key System desires to increase its streetcar rates from 6 to 10 cents and its ferry rates from 18 to 25 cents. Sachse estimated that the revenue under the proposed schedule, would increase from $4,350,000 to $6,190,000 per year on street cars and from $2,284,200 to $2,980,000 year on ferries.
